

Bruce Winick
Handout Materials

The handout materials will consist of the five page course syllabus for New Directions in Lawyering: Interviewing, Counseling, and Attorney/Client Relational Skills. It will contain bibliographical references to assigned readings. The broad outlines of the syllabus are as follows:

- I. Identifying Professional Values
- II. Alternative Visions of the Lawyer's Role
- III. A Therapeutic Jurisprudence/Preventive Law Model of Lawyering
- IV. The Therapeutic Jurisprudence/Preventive Law Model in Practice
- V. Resolving Matrimonial and Child Custody Disputes
- VI. Criminal Practice
- VII. Civil Commitment Practice
- VIII. Litigation
- IX. Attorney/Client Communications
- X. Counseling
- XI. Interviewing and Counseling Simulated Exercises
- XII. Client Interviewing and Counseling Session
- XIII. Psycholegal Soft Spot Papers