SUBJECT: 2010-2011 Outstanding Teacher - Recognition at AALS
Annual Meeting and Request for Name of your Honoree

Serving through 2011
Katharine T. Bartlett
Duke University

In its role as the scholarly society for law teachers, for more than a century the AALS has worked to encourage excellence in scholarship and in teaching.

Daniel B. Rodriguez
The University of Texas

To highlight the importance of excellence in teaching, at the Annual Meeting the AALS will recognize and honor those law faculty who have been selected as outstanding teachers by their law schools during the 2010-2011 academic year. We acknowledge these outstanding teachers as "Teachers of the Year" in the in the February Newsletter and the Annual Meeting Luncheon program. We also ask those in attendance to rise and receive the warm applause of their colleagues at the Luncheon.

Serving through 2012
Dorothy Andrea Brown
Emory University

Ann C. Shalleck
American University

If your school annually selects an outstanding teacher, please submit the name of your honoree for 2010-2011 so that we may invite your faculty member to this reception and have your law school represented in this celebration of teaching excellence. Please complete the attached form and return it to the AALS office by September 26, 2011. This will enable us to ensure that your honoree will be listed in the Luncheon program. Please list the faculty member's name as you would like it to appear in the program. Send your response to Deborah Quick by email at dquick@aals.org

Serving through 2013
Pat K. Chew
University of Pittsburgh

Paul Marcus
College of William and Mary

After we receive your honoree's name, we will contact you about whether you would also like to provide us a short video clip which illuminates the teaching of your nominee. If so, we will provide further instructions.
