MEMORANDUM 13-03

TO: Deans and Faculty of AALS Member Schools

FROM: Susan Westerberg Prager

SUBJECT: Recommendations for Committee Appointments

Strong and thoughtful volunteers are a dominant element in the work of the AALS. This summer, Association President-Elect Dan Rodriguez will begin work on his committee appointments. He will appoint members to the following standing committees for three-year terms to begin in January 2014: Academic Freedom and Tenure; Clinical Legal Education; Curriculum Issues; the Journal of Legal Education Editorial Board; Libraries and Technology; Membership Review; Professional Development; Recruitment and Retention of Minority Law Teachers and Students; Research; Sections and Annual Meeting; and the Committee to Review Scholarly Papers for the Annual Meeting. President-Elect Rodriguez will also appoint members to the Nominating Committee for Officers and Members of the 2014 Executive Committee.

It would be most helpful to have your suggestions before June 24, 2013. Please send your recommendations of AALS member school faculty who should be considered for committees to Susan Prager, Executive Director. Electronic recommendations should be sent to 14committees@aals.org with committee name as the subject header. You may also mail your nominations to 1201 Connecticut Avenue NW, Suite 800, Washington, DC 20036.

The AALS seeks committees that reflect the participation of newer as well as seasoned members of the faculty. We would appreciate your insight into the suggested persons' strengths in the context of committee service.
