Strong and thoughtful volunteers are a vital element in the work of the AALS. This summer, Association President-Elect Blake Morant will begin work on his committee appointments. He will appoint members to the following standing committees for three-year terms to begin in January 2015: Academic Freedom and Tenure; Clinical Legal Education; Curriculum Issues; the Journal of Legal Education Editorial Board; Libraries and Technology; Membership Review; Professional Development; Recruitment and Retention of Minority Law Teachers and Students; Research; Sections and Annual Meeting; and the Committee to Review Scholarly Papers for the Annual Meeting. President-Elect Morant will also appoint members to the Nominating Committee for Officers and Members of the 2015 Executive Committee.

It would be most helpful to have your recommendations before June 24, 2014. Please send them to Judith Areen, Executive Director, at 15committees@aals.org with committee name as the subject header. You may also mail your nominations to 1614 20th Street NW, Washington, DC 20009.

The AALS seeks committees that reflect the participation of newer as well as seasoned members of the academy. We would appreciate your insight into the suggested persons' strengths in the context of committee service.
