2013 ANNUAL MEETING AND EXHIBITS

The Association of American Law Schools is dedicated to improvement of the legal profession through legal education. The AALS Annual Meeting and Exhibits offer the most comprehensive week of continuing education and networking available for legal educators. The Exhibits Open House in the Hilton Exhibition Center, located on the Second Floor of the Hilton New Orleans Riverside, provides meeting attendees the opportunity to view and discuss products and services which could enhance or support their teaching goals.

The Meeting Place is a lounge area in the Exhibit Hall for Annual Meeting participants to meet and greet colleagues and enjoy beverages and snacks on the opening evening and each morning and afternoon.

This program serves as a guide to the Exhibits, providing information about their products and services and their location (see the back of this program for the floor plan).

NELCO, Inc. is an international consortium representing over 120 law library members in four countries. Just over thirty years ago, the New England Deans convened their library directors and charged them to collaborate in an effort to manage library costs. The result of their efforts was NELCO. Today, we're a thriving association, with members from across the U.S., Canada, the U.K. and Australia. Our members collaborate on acquisitions, licensing, projects and programs to maximize resources in support of the missions of their institutions. Our latest exciting initiative is Preserving America's Legal Materials in Print (PALMPrint), a joint effort of NELCO and the Legal Information Preservation Alliance (LIPA). Is your library enjoying the benefits of membership? Come see us in the exhibit hall and find out!
